Guidance Brief

What is a Travel Grant?

Travel grants are meant to support young researchers and student groups who are not otherwise able to find resources to support their travel and participation in international conferences and competitions. These grants are meant to help scholars of KP travel abroad and get international exposure themselves and also allow the world to meet bright young minds from KP.

Each individual travel grant will not be more than 0.5 million which can cover airfare, boarding and lodging and conference fee. Preferences will be given to 1) oral presenters compared to poster presenter and 2) early bird registrations or registrations that have earned partial or full waivers. Each student group application will be given an award of not more than 3 million rupees.
